Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the Market Excellence Associate Manager role. Fragrance is the category I know best commercially: at Miravia (Alibaba Group) I was PIC for Fragrances, where I onboarded 30+ stores in two months — including the official distributors of Arabian Oud, Lattafa, Swiss Arabian and Ajmal — and owned their assortment, pricing and promotional plans. I have spent two years on the other side of the table from houses like AMOUAGE, which is exactly the wholesale relationship this role is built around.

Today I lead Brand & Marketing for DoFreeze in Dubai, a UAE house whose brands sell through a distributor network across 50+ countries in GCC, MENA, Asia, Europe, the USA and Africa. I deploy the brand and trade marketing plan through that network: validating local activations and POS execution against brand guidelines, approving market adaptations, and keeping standards consistent wherever the brand shows up. I have led six product launches end-to-end — brief, packaging, pricing and 360° go-to-market — building the toolkits distributors execute with, then reviewing what worked after each launch to sharpen the next one.

The commercial side is where I started. At Miravia I managed 42 key accounts across beauty, fragrances and fashion, growing GMV +30% QoQ through assortment, pricing and targeted trade activations, and owned the Flash Sales channel for Beauty, Fashion & Home reporting to the CEO. Before that I analysed sell-in/sell-out and promotional effectiveness in category planning at Mondelez. I should be straightforward about one point in your requirements: my degree is a Bachelor's in Business Administration from CUNEF, not a Master's — my thesis specialised in e-commerce and the fashion industry and was graded 9.5/10, and the sector and distributor experience behind it is what I would bring on day one.

I am already based in Dubai on a UAE residence visa and could start without a relocation timeline. I would welcome the chance to talk through how I would structure the wholesale launch toolkit and trade validation process for your distributor network. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best regards,

Paula De Francisco Pérez
