Dear Alpargatas Hiring Team,

I'm applying for the Regional Brand Manager – Trend Setter and Trend Amplifier Markets role. Building a lifestyle brand market by market — reading local culture, partnering with distributors and turning global strategy into campaigns people actually feel — is what I do every day. From Dubai, I lead Brand & Marketing for DoFreeze (Befit, Eurocake, Flair) across 50+ distributor markets in Asia, the GCC, MENA, Europe, the USA and Africa, localising creative, promotional mechanics and calendars to each market's cultural nuances.

Spotting a trend early and amplifying it across markets is the muscle I've trained hardest. At Alibaba's Miravia, I monetised the Arabian & oud fragrance wave — onboarding 30+ stores in two months (Arabian Oud, Lattafa, Swiss Arabian, Ajmal) and growing my portfolio of 42 beauty and fashion accounts +30% GMV quarter on quarter. At DoFreeze, I built an influencer and creator programme from zero to 25–50 creators per campaign, plus sampling and seeding, driving youth-culture relevance, UGC and measurable sell-out on lean budgets.

I'm also the commercial operator this role needs. I act as strategic brand partner to distributors and local commercial teams — brand storytelling, launch presentations and integrated plans built cross-functionally with Trade Marketing, Supply and Finance — while owning A&P budgets, forecasting and brand and commercial KPIs, and I've led six NPD launches end-to-end. My foundations are in fashion retail (Inditex-trained), so I speak both the brand language and the sell-out reality of lifestyle retail.

Havaianas is a brand I genuinely connect with: a true cultural icon with enormous headroom to set trends in some markets and amplify them in others — exactly the game this role is about. I'm a Spanish national based in Dubai on a UAE residence visa, fluent in English and native in Spanish, and comfortable operating as the regional expert inside a global organisation. I'd love to discuss how I can help Havaianas win its next wave of markets.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,

Paula De Francisco Pérez
