PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

E-commerce and retention-minded marketer with 4+ years owning client relationships and driving revenue across Beauty, FMCG and DTC e-commerce. I run a Shopify DTC store end-to-end — catalogue, CRO, promotions and email/EDM campaigns — planning campaign calendars, A/B-testing creative and messaging, and reading open, click and conversion data to decide what ships next. Account management is my spine: at Alibaba's Miravia I owned 42 key accounts as the main point of contact (+30% GMV QoQ), and at Glovo I managed XL accounts end-to-end — so weekly reporting, fast responses and keeping accounts retained, performing and happy are second nature. I'm an AI-first operator who builds generative-AI automation for campaign planning, content and reporting (~40% manual workload cut) — the kind of speed an agency pod runs on. Platform-agnostic and quick to ramp on Klaviyo. Fluent English, remote-ready, already based in Dubai.
