Dear Hiring Manager,

I'm applying for the Category Manager role leading noon's Home category. Owning a category's P&L end-to-end — roadmap, assortment, pricing, seller partnerships and on-time launches — is exactly the work I do today across noon and the UAE's quick-commerce platforms, and it's where I've delivered my strongest commercial results.

At Miravia (Alibaba Group) I owned the commercial levers for 42 accounts — assortment, pricing and promotions — growing GMV +30% QoQ against P&L targets, and I ran the Beauty, Fashion & Home Flash Sales channel reporting directly to the CEO, so I've managed a Home category in practice. As PIC Fragrances I sourced, onboarded and negotiated 30+ new sellers in two months. My category-planning foundation comes from Mondelez (sell-in/sell-out, promotional effectiveness, AOP-style planning and NPD), and today at DoFreeze I run the digital shelf and seller relationships across noon, Talabat, Careem and Deliveroo.

I'm comfortable across both marketplace (3P) and retail (1P) models, rigorous with large data sets in Excel, and I turn numbers into decision-ready assortment and pricing actions. I'm already based in Dubai on a residence visa, bilingual Spanish/English (C1), and I know noon from the seller side — so I'd be productive from week one. The Home category's growth runway on the platform is exactly the kind of challenge I want to own.

I'd welcome the chance to show how I'd build and scale noon's Home category. I'm available to start immediately and would love to discuss the role — you can reach me at +971 50 386 3656 or paulich98@hotmail.com. Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,

Paula De Francisco Pérez
