Dear Hiring Manager,

Perfetti Van Melle's Senior E-Commerce Executive role reads like a description of what I do every day. From Dubai, I own e-commerce for an FMCG portfolio across priority markets — growing online sales on leading marketplaces and quick-commerce platforms, nurturing e-retail relationships and opening new ones. Doing that for a confectionery leader across the Middle East & Africa is exactly the challenge I'm looking for.

The brief maps almost point-for-point onto my experience. At DoFreeze I integrate FMCG brands into the UAE's leading e-retail and quick-commerce platforms (Noon, Talabat, Careem, Deliveroo) — managing listings, assortment, promotional mechanics and retail execution — and I run monthly rolling forecasts and assortment reviews jointly with distributors and country teams to protect SKU availability and service levels. I own the Shopify store end-to-end, optimising the customer digital journey and conversion, and I build customer business plans with joint KPIs by channel. Before Dubai, at Alibaba's Miravia I grew 42 e-retail accounts +30% GMV quarter-on-quarter through pricing, assortment optimisation and targeted promotions, owning the Flash Sales channel P&L against budgeted sales targets.

What I'd bring to Perfetti Van Melle specifically: rare hands-on fluency with the exact UAE / Middle East e-retail platforms this role manages; a genuinely analytical, data-led approach to sales, forecasting and growth opportunities; and FMCG grounding that includes confectionery itself — I started in category planning at Mondelez, running sell-in/sell-out and promotional analysis for the chocolate category. I work naturally across distributors, country managers and cross-functional teams, I'm already based in Dubai, and I hold a Business Administration degree with an E-Commerce specialisation.

I'd welcome the chance to discuss how my UAE quick-commerce and e-retail account experience would translate into growth for Perfetti Van Melle across the Middle East & Africa. Thank you for considering my application — I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Paula De Francisco Pérez
