Dear Hiring Manager,

Chic Le Frique sits right at the intersection of fashion, wholesale and e-commerce — the exact mix I have spent my career in, from Inditex on the shop floor to managing fashion and beauty accounts at Alibaba's Miravia. I would love to help own and grow your key retail partnerships.

Driving sell-through, stock performance and brand representation across partners is what I do best. At Miravia I owned 42 key accounts and grew GMV +30% QoQ through pricing, assortment and markdown strategy, acting weekly on bestsellers and underperformers. I also manage product uploads, listings and content at DoFreeze, so the e-commerce side of this role is second nature.

I started my career Inditex-trained at Massimo Dutti, giving me an instinct for premium fashion presentation and retail cadence, and I helped build Glovo's retail vertical onboarding fashion brands. I am already based in Dubai on a UAE residence visa — no relocation needed — and work bilingually in Spanish and English.

I would welcome the chance to discuss how I can drive sell-through and grow Chic Le Frique's wholesale and e-commerce accounts. I am available to interview at your convenience and can start immediately. Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,

Paula De Francisco Pérez
