Dear Hiring Manager,

A growing pet-supplement D2C brand looking for someone to take full ownership of paid media — strategic and hands-on across Meta and Google, owning budget, bidding and performance targets in a startup-like, remote-first setup — describes what I do every day. I'm a performance and growth marketer who runs paid social and paid search for a D2C/e-commerce business now, and I love the combination this role offers: real ownership of the numbers, plus the chance to build the channel — and the team — as the brand scales.

On the core of the role I'm a direct match. At DoFreeze I plan, launch and manage paid campaigns across Meta Ads (Facebook & Instagram) and Google Ads for the D2C business — audience building, creative A/B testing, budget allocation and bidding — and I hold everything to hard targets (ROI, ROAS, CPA, conversion), running a continuous test-and-learn loop and translating results into clear next steps for leadership. I run the Shopify store end-to-end (CRO, UX, checkout) so I optimise the whole funnel, not just the click, and I manage multiple channels around paid (social, influencer, EDM). Before Dubai I built the same performance rhythm inside two data-led businesses: at Alibaba's Miravia I grew 42 accounts +30% GMV QoQ analysing conversion, ROI and ROAS daily; at Glovo I ran complex campaigns on a quick-commerce super-app. I've also built an AI-powered system (Claude) that speeds up my reporting, creative iteration and planning.

Two honest notes. First, on team-building: I've scaled delivery by coordinating and delegating to creators, agencies and freelancers and by leading cross-functional teams, and I own marketing as a function today — but I haven't yet run a large direct-report team, so building and leading the in-house team as you grow is a step I'm genuinely ready for rather than one I've done at scale. Second, on category: my background is e-commerce, FMCG and beauty rather than pet supplements specifically, though I market a health & fitness brand (Befit) and beauty/personal-care lines today, so health-and-wellness consumer goods and D2C subscription-style retention are familiar, and I ramp fast. A remote-first, senior-led international team suits me well — I'm Dubai-based and used to working across markets and time zones.

I'd love to own and grow this brand's paid media and prove it in the numbers — I can share paid-media case studies and performance results, from +30% GMV QoQ to funnel and creative optimisation. I'm Dubai-based, comfortable remote-first, and available to talk through how I'd approach strategy, budget and the first performance targets. Thank you for your consideration — I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Paula De Francisco Pérez
