PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

E-commerce category and account manager with five years across top marketplaces and consumer brands, now driving brand growth across UAE quick-commerce (including noon) from Dubai. I've done this role's twin: at Alibaba's Miravia I owned 42 brand accounts on a top-5 marketplace end-to-end — selection and assortment, vendor management and joint business plans, promotions and merchandising, and analytics — growing GMV +30% QoQ. I turn data into category growth: expanding selection and discoverability, building campaigns and merchandising that lift traffic and conversion, coordinating availability and replenishment with cross-functional partners, and benchmarking competitors to move KPIs. I know noon first-hand from the brand side, having integrated products onto its platform, and I work fluently in Excel, Power BI and data analysis. Business Administration graduate (CUNEF) — relentlessly resourceful, with a deep bias for action.
