Dear Hiring Manager,

Growing beauty brands on Pure-Player e-retailers — owning the online activation calendar, winning premium onsite visibility, running retail media for sell-out and keeping the digital shelf flawless — is exactly the work I do today, so Shiseido's E-Retail Manager role in Dubai immediately drew me in. I built my career on the e-retailer side at Alibaba's Miravia managing beauty and fragrance accounts, and I now lead Brand & E-Commerce for an FMCG portfolio across 50+ markets, owning e-retail activation, digital-shelf execution and retail-media performance end-to-end.

The core of the role maps directly onto what I deliver. At DoFreeze I own the online activation calendar across UAE e-retailers and quick-commerce (Noon, Talabat, Careem, Deliveroo) — campaigns, hero moments and retailer-driven events aligned to brand calendars and launches — while driving digital-shelf excellence (product pages, imagery, search visibility, category ranking and assortment) and running retail-media and performance activation (sponsored listings, search and social amplification) against KPIs like visibility share, CTR, conversion, ROAS and AOV. I lead 360° launches for six NPDs end-to-end — coordinating content readiness, stock, media support and retailer visibility — and I manage the commercial fundamentals the role needs: forecasts and orders with supply chain, promotional plans, trade investments and A&P/rebate budgets to ROI, monitoring sell-in and sell-out.

What makes me a natural fit for this specific brief is my Pure-Player pedigree in exactly your categories. At Miravia — a top-5 e-commerce marketplace — I was Key Account Manager for Beauty, Fragrances & Fashion, an e-key-account role driving sell-out through onsite visibility, activation and promotions: 42 accounts at +30% GMV quarter-on-quarter, ownership of the Flash Sales channel reporting to the CEO, and self-initiated activations ('Beauty Club', 'Hot on Social') that turned the platform into a beauty destination. I led fragrance category expansion with leading Arabian & oud houses (Arabian Oud, Lattafa, Swiss Arabian, Ajmal), so I know how premium beauty and fragrance sell online in this region. I'll be candid on one point: I'm four-plus years in rather than five or six — but the depth is here, and already based in Dubai I can bring it to your Pure-Player partners from day one.

I'd welcome the chance to discuss how my e-retail, retail-media and beauty-category experience would translate into Shiseido's Pure-Player growth, and I'm ready to move quickly. Thank you for considering my application — I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Paula De Francisco Pérez
