PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Category and commercial manager with 4+ years across consumer products — FMCG, Beauty, Fragrances and Fashion — building category strategy, developing partner relationships and turning data into working plans across MENA and 50+ markets. My lineage is category and commercial: Category Planning at Mondelez, category expansion as PIC Fragrances at Alibaba's Miravia (onboarded 30+ stores, +30% GMV QoQ across 42 accounts against P&L targets), and joint business planning, forecasting and contract negotiation with distributors and modern-trade/retail partners at DoFreeze. I pair strong financial acumen (P&L, annual operating plans, quarterly forecasts, sell-in/sell-out) with a good eye for digital, social and brick-and-mortar marketing — running Google/Meta and social today, executing across modern trade and quick-commerce, with an Inditex (Massimo Dutti) retail and visual-merchandising foundation. Dubai-based with cultural fluency across GCC/MENA, native Spanish, and an early-adopter edge in generative AI (Claude/GPT) for insight, planning and reporting. Business English (C1).
