Dear Hiring Manager,

I'm excited to apply for the E-commerce Manager position at Toy Station General Trading LLC. Your focus on scaling online sales channels across marketplaces and driving revenue growth aligns perfectly with my passion for omnichannel e-commerce. Having researched your expanding presence in Dubai's retail landscape, I'm particularly drawn to your strategic approach to marketplace optimization and the opportunity to contribute to Toy Station's digital transformation.

My 4+ years in FMCG and Beauty directly translate to your e-commerce requirements. At Alibaba (Miravia/AliExpress), I achieved +30% GMV growth QoQ while managing 42 key accounts, demonstrating my ability to drive marketplace performance and optimize unit economics. Leading 6 NPD launches end-to-end across 50+ countries at DoFreeze has given me extensive experience in product content management, pricing strategies, and cross-functional coordination with procurement and marketing teams. My analytical approach using data-driven insights to optimize conversion rates and performance metrics aligns perfectly with your need for strong Excel/Google Sheets skills and understanding of margins.

What sets me apart is my hands-on UAE quick-commerce experience, having successfully integrated brands into Noon, Talabat, Careem, and Deliveroo platforms—directly relevant to your Noon marketplace requirements. I've scaled promotional campaigns from zero to 25-50 creators per campaign, showcasing my ability to execute seasonal campaigns and optimize user experience. Being already based in Dubai with a UAE residence visa, I can start immediately and bring local market insights. My bilingual Spanish/English capabilities also support potential expansion into diverse markets, while my omnichannel expertise ensures seamless coordination across all sales channels.

I'm genuinely excited about the opportunity to drive Toy Station's e-commerce growth and would welcome the chance to discuss how my marketplace expertise and proven track record can contribute to your revenue targets. I'm immediately available and would appreciate the opportunity to explore this role further. Thank you for considering my application—I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Paula De Francisco Pérez
